

DONOR PRIVACY & SECURITY

The security and privacy of your information as a donor is very important to Emerge Mothers Academy. When you donate, your personal information will not be shared. To ensure that your information is secure, Emerge Mothers Academy:

- Does not sell, rent, trade, exchange or share donor information with other organizations
- Keeps all printed donor information (forms, checks, donation slips) in a secure location that can only be accessed by authorized staff with a unique username and password
- Directly deposits checks into the Emerge Mothers Academy bank account
- Manages online donations through a secure website

Emerge Mothers Academy uses donor information to:

- Send a thank you
- Provide a donation receipt
- Keep required financial records
- Analyze data
- Share news, stories and events

Please contact Becca Erickson, Executive Director, at 612.910.9962 with any questions or concerns you may have regarding the privacy and security of your personal information.

Thank you for your support!
